

SaleSpider.com – Launches Its Google+ Pages!

Toronto, Canada – January 19th, 2012 - SaleSpider.com released Google+ pages today describing its social network for small businesses and entrepreneurs. The business networking site offers its members messaging, and networking and is home to over 1 million members. The network is unique in that it also offers members daily matching to opportunities based on their preferences.

These Google+ pages include SaleSpider Marketplace, SaleSpider Job Board, and SaleSpider Business Directory. On these pages, users will find everything they need to know about these areas on SaleSpider.com as well as updated daily information.

Other pages are focused more on income opportunities such as the SaleSpider Opportunity page which posts about sales leads and contracts or the SaleSpider Job Board which posts updated jobs every day.

These pages will feature weekly postings from the site that will include industry articles, business tips and resources and daily new classified ads being posted on the site. The content will always be fresh, new and exciting!
